

Dogie's Lament

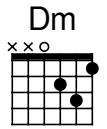

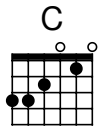

Kingston Trio: Nick Reynolds/Bob Shane/John Stewart "New Frontier 1962"

Key C, tmL/dmM/caH* 90bpm

DogiesLament.3 arranged by donmc October 28, 2025

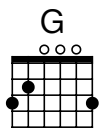

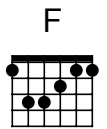

banjo

C Dm G C
C Dm G C

verse 1 (ca)

C Dm my G dogie C
As I was out walkin' one mornin' for pleasure
C Dm G C
I spied a cowpuncher a-ridin' along
C Dm G C
His hat was thrown back and his spurs were a-jinglin'
C Dm G C C
and as he approached he was singin' this song

chorus (harmony)

hi-harm: G C C
Whoopee ki yi yo, get along, little dogie
G C C
It's your misfortune and none of my own
lo-harm: C F G C Whoopee ki yi yo, get along, little dogie
C F G C C
You know that Wyoming will be your new home

banjo

C Dm G C
C Dm G C

verse 2 (tm)

C Dm G C
It's early in spring when we round up the dogies
C Dm G C C
++ We roused 'em and fed 'em as they wagged their tails
C Dm G C
They round up the horses, load up the chuck-wagon
C Dm G C C
Then send the dogies out on the long trail

chorus (harmony) Chorus

guitar

C Dm G C
C Dm G C

verse 3 (dm)

C Dm G C
Your mother was a-raised a way down in Texas
C Dm G C C
Where the Jimsonweed -- and the sandburrs grow
C Dm G C
We'll feed you up -- on prickly pear cholla
C Dm G C C
And then send you roamin' to old Idaho

chorus (harmony) Chorus

(unison)

a capella: C F G hold: C
You know that Wyoming will be your new home